Eytan Greenberg specializes in advising large Israeli companies on Companies Law, Securities Law, Commercial Transactions, Mergers and Acquisitions, Infrastructure Development and Project Finance, and Corporate Reorganizations. During his career, Eytan has been involved in important transactions in the local and international markets and has advised many companies in public offerings of their shares and securities in Israel and the U.S. Many of the public offerings in which he has been involved included innovations, amongst them simultaneous public offerings in Israel and the U.S., and the first offering of a company controlled by a kibbutz (an Israeli collective community), as well as takeovers and tender offers. Eytan also handled the first group of Israeli companies to implement dual registration on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange and either Nasdaq or the New York Stock Exchange, and specializes in the compliance with the filing and reporting requirements of dual-listed companies in accordance with U.S. law. In recent years, Eytan has been particularly active in developing innovative tools to be used in shareholder and creditors arrangements in corporate restructurings and reorganizations. He is also experienced in the handling of national infrastructure projects and major mergers, including those in the field of communications.

Eytan joined the offices of Prof. Joseph Gross & Co. in 1986, became a partner at Gross in 1991, and has been a partner at GKH since 2001 when the firm was established.
