

A portrait of Sarit Leviathan, a woman with dark curly hair and glasses, smiling and looking down at a laptop. She is wearing a dark blazer. The background is a light blue wall.

Sarit Leviathan (Sagi), Partner

Tel: +972-3-607.4441

email: sarit@gkh-law.com

Sarit Leviathan is a partner in the Israeli Securities Law group at GKH. She represents public companies traded on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange, from a diverse range of areas within the Israeli economy. Sarit specializes in preliminary and secondary rounds of financing in Israel and abroad, and regularly advises public companies on securities law, corporate law and commercial transactions. Sarit coordinates the firm's handling of life science companies traded on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange, and she is a member of the firm's biomed team which counsels biomedical life sciences companies throughout their various stages of development. Sarit also provides legal advice relating to debt arrangements (Restructuring) and securitization transactions. Sarit advises GKH clients on various aspects of antitrust practices, relating to both their ongoing activities and specific transactions.

Sarit joined GKH in 1999, and became a partner in 2006. Prior to this, she worked for a commercial firm and specialized in communication law.

Education: Hebrew University, Jerusalem (LL.B., 1997); Tel Aviv University (LL.M., 2000).

Admitted: Israel Bar, 1997.

Member: Israel Bar Association.

Languages: Hebrew and English.