Yaron Herman, a partner in our Corporate Law, Capital Markets and Securitization practice areas, also leads our Telecommunications Law practice. Yaron advises public companies with securities traded on the Israeli and/or international stock exchanges on their business and financial activities, and counsels boards of directors on the management of complicated transactions including mergers and acquisitions. Additionally, Yaron is active with the Israel Bar Institute of Mediation in the fields of telecommunications and computer disputes.

He heads the GKH Opinion Committee and advises international clients regarding Israeli computer, telecommunications and protection of privacy laws. Likewise, he offers counsel regarding singular commercial transactions, including BOT (Built Operate Transfer) and PFI (Private Financing Initiative) projects.

Yaron serves as the legal counsels for the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Israel. Is vice president of the Capital Markets and Securitization Forum of the Israel Bar Association, and is involved in the process of legislating guidelines, rules and regulations.

Yaron joined GKH in 1997 and became a partner in 2001. An attorney since 1990, he has vast experience in the practice of telecom, capital markets, securitization and project finance. He served in various capacities in the Counseling and Legislation Department in Judge Advocate General Headquarters of the IDF (Israel Defense Forces) until 1997, including legal counsel regarding telecommunications, electricity, energy, infrastructure, transportation, and more.

Yaron is a frequent contributor to the Israeli press on new developments in his fields of expertise.
